If the Democratic party is ever de stroyed in South Carolina it will be by Democrats falling out and fighting among themselves. Let us, therefore, in Anderson County remain true to our party, and by voting solidly for its nominees, help to continue its influence and control over the government of our State.

If Anderson County should show a revival of the Independent spirit by any disaffection from the nominces of the party at this time, it would prove very disastrous to the Democratic party, and to the best interests of the whole State. Every Democrat ought, for the sake of his party, to vote the straight Democratic ticket on next Tuesday, and vote the

We notice in the News and Courier that Hugh Kane, one of the notorious Ladd murderers, was arrested in Charleston on last Saturday for fighting in the City Hall Square, and taken to the Guard House, where he was released on bail. It will be recollected that Kane was wrested by the United States authorities from the State, and taken into custody by the United States Marshal. Kane is charged with murder, he has had no trial, and yet he is at liberty and found fighting in the streets of Charlesardent spirits is, without trial, declared murderers of young Ladd is, without The contrast does not speak well for the

The difficulty which existed in Hampton County, growing out of the candidacy of Maj. Warren and Col. Moore for the State Senate, and which at one time threatened to divide the Democracy of that County and insure a Radical success, has been happily adjusted, the Democrats re-united and their success rendered certain. Maj. Warren withdrew from the contest, leaving Col. Moore the undisputed Democratic candidate for the Senate. Maj. Warren not only withdrew from the contest to prevent division in the party, but now to insure the success of his party warmly advocates the election of his opponent. By this action he has made self subservient to party; ambition to the triumph of principle, and he will receive the commendation of every true Democrat. If the true spirit of Democracy which animated Maj. Warren and his friends, animated all political aspirants and their friends, Democratic rule would not only

The evident design culpating those whom they dislike, and of Austria, Turkey and England is to all this prompted by corrupt party leaders for party purposes. The Courts of the State protect the humblest negro in his rights, and if those rights were assalled in Sumter and Williamsburg as alleged, these Courts afford ample protection and redress; but the United States Court was resorted to for the simple reason that protection and redress was not the object in view, but political capital for Northern climes where the truth could not be ascertained.

His position is the whirlwind. so anomalous that he has lost the confidence of the Democrats, and the Radicals will use him only so far as they can through him injure the Democrats and advance their own corrupt party, after which they will cast him off and leave him in all the glory of his independence, without any party to regard or fear him. He has dug his political grave. The man who in this critical period of our State's final redemption seeks to foment division in the Democratic party, because he is not the nominee, and relies upon that he has committed the great irretrievable error of his life, and that no party in the future will trust him. The election of Mr. Campbell will be the defeat of the Democratic and the success of the Radical party. The Radicals nomi nated him not because he was their choice for Senator, but because they

them to elect their ticket to the House. We do not censure the Radicals for the nomination. They knew that it was the best they could do to promote the success of their party, and that if the move should be successful, it would be the beginning which, if tolerated by the Democrats, would certainly give the State in 1880 to the Radicals. But what shall we say of the Democrat who, upon the eve of one of the most important political battles ever decided at the poils, deserts his party gives aid and comfor, to the enemy, and gathers around him their dusky and drunken hordes, that he may defeat the regular nominee of his party, and gratify his ambition at the expense of his party and the best interest of the whole State? This we know, that he should go to the Radicals where he properly belongs, and be numbered by all the respectable people of the State as one of them, for then he would be deprived of his power for mischief in the party, and as harmless as Bowen and Mackey to influence the honest and intelligent masses of the State. The independent candidacy of M: Campbell is an injury to the Democracy of the whole State, and his election would prove a great misfortune to the people of Charleston. Charleston is the chief sea port city of the State, and as such should be the pride of every true Carolinian. The interests of Charleston Redmond, the alleged trafficker in and the whole State, whether political, financial or commercial, are mutual and an outlaw, and Kane, one of the alleged | identical. Mr. Campadministration of law and justice by the bell, if elected, can do nothing for Charleston. His position in the Senate will be an isolated one. The Radicals will use him only so far as they can promote their partisan ends, and he will have lost his influence with the Democrats. As an Independent, arrayed against his party, he could not expect the cordial and confidential political relations with the majorities of the two Houses of the Legislature which the interests of Charleston demand, and which are so necessary to Charleston in shaping the legislation of the State.

EUROPEAN COMPLICATIONS.

If the despatches from Vienna published in the London Standard are true, the trer ly of Berlin has utterly failed to and threatened the peace of Europe for powers as well as certain Asiatic States. That Russia failed to receive a recompence for her outlay in money and loss of life in her war with Turkey by the pean powers, especially England, recog-Russia, fear that Russia has ulterior destipulations of the treaty of San Stefano in Southern Europe and Asia at present t'areaten the peace of nations. England has collected a large force south of Afghenistan and Russia on the north. country, and it is expected that she will soon declare war against the Ameer and take possession of the Southern part of the country; if so, Russia will take the Northern part, and these two armies soon come in conflict. Can the conflict be cordined to Asia or will it involve the whole of Europe? The situation in Europe is as critical as in Asia. Russia refuses to evacuate the Dobruscha, and is collecting an immense force on the lines, especially the strong strategical points, of the late conflict. The evident design of Austria, Turkey and England is to circumscribe the power of Russia and deprive her of the fruits of her costly and hard won victories. It can searcely be expected that such a power as Russia will submit to this, and if she falls to secure by diplomacy the fruits of the late war to which her victories entitled her, it is not at all improbable that she will again appeal to arms to secure her just rights of conquest. It is to be hoped that the conflicting interests of European take possession of the Southern part of

THE POLLS.

On next Tuesday the polls will be opened at 6 o'clock a. m. and closed at 6 o'clock p. m. We urge upon Democratic voters the necessity of being at the polls when opened and remaining until they are closed. More can be accomplished in swelling our majorities on the day of election with the colored people than at any previous time. Apathy on the part of the people will assuredly lead to di-Radical votes for his election, will find have a depressing influence on the Demminished majorities in this County, and ocratic cause throughout the State, and lead to future complications which may prove most disastrous. A hearty support of the ticket, the whole ticket, without any scratching, is the most unmistakable sentence of condemnation which the people of the County can pass upon all Independents and disorganizers. Every name scratched from the ticket encourages Independents, tends to the disorganization of the party, and plays into the hands of the Radicals. At the next election we vote not for men but for principle; not for our choice between Democrats but for Democrats as opposed to Radicals.

AN OPPORTUNITY.

The colored people of the State have now an opportunity to prove that they have no ill-feeling towards the whites, and do not propose to array themselves as a race in antagonism with them. The Democrats have for two years given them an honest and economical administration of the government, protected them in all their rights of person and property, and by the equal and faithful administration of the laws secured them the same protection as is extended to the whites, This protection was not secured to them by the corrupt government of Scott, Moses and Chamberlain. The colored people know that their taxes are much less under Democratic rule than they were under Radical domination; that their rights are better secured to them by Gov. Hampton than they were by the Radicals, and that the relations between the races are now more harmonious than at any time since the war, and knowing all this they must feel it a duty to vote at the coming election the Democratic ticket, and secure a continuation of the government which has brought peace to the State and absolute protection to them. It is not only their duty to vote with the world should stimulate the agrithemselves the future evils of bad government from which they have just esernment from which they have just escaped. The colored people have now an opportunity of showing to the world their appreciation of honest and upright rulers, and their abhorrence and condemnation of corrunt had their included.

A Raid on Williamsburg.

KINGSTREE, S. C., October 25. The outrageous stories of Swails at Washington are producing some fruit.
Yesterday District Attorney Northrop, with United States Commissioner P. L. Wiggin and two constables, appeared in our little town to look after the rights and wrongs of the great bribe-taker.

Vernon, Ohio, one night last week, took out four negroes and hung them in the jail yard. Another was quartered in his cell, after his thront was cut. And yet we have heard no call for troops. They had been guilty of a gross outrage upon four little girls.

A family of emigrants on the way to Texas camped over night in Sedslia, Mo. In the morning the man packed all the things in the wagon to continue the journey, except his aged mother-in-law, whom he left at the side of the road.—However, a mob compelled him to take her prosecution will ever be heard of again.—Cor. His complaint was that when he was re turning home from a meeting in the country he was suddenly surrounded by a large number of horsemen, wearing red shirts and acting generally in an improper manner, and after some minutes clapsed, in response to his own inquiry, the leader of the Red-shirts informed him that he was under arrest. In this manner he was carried into the town of Kingstree, and on arriving there he called upon Trial Justice Steele for protection, but that officer failed to give aim satisfaction. At a subsequent date he was notified by a delegation of white citizens that he must leave the country and not return on peril of his life. The reply of Governor Hampton is as follows: him that he was under arrest. In this EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,

The indications are favorable for the early denise of Yellow Jack, and that a week or two more will relieve the country of his hated presence. The visitation of this year has been the most fatal in its effects of any ever known in this country, the total number of deaths reaching probably over twelve thousand. With a little care and prudence on the part of refugees the worst time is over, and we hope they may soon be able safely to return and build up their prostrated business and desolated homes.

- Mr. Harry Camp, writing to the Covington (Ga.) Enterprise says: "Gin houses are being burned up by the wholesale. I have had fifty years experience in the ginning business, and have no doubt but what many matches have gone through my gins, but none have been burned. If the brush band is too tight, it draws the cylinder against the box, and the brush running at high speed heats the brush cylinder very quickly and causes the lint to take fire. Don't have your brush band too tight."

- During the present year four of the Pacific Slope, have died, and through their death money to the amount of 50,000,000 has been distributed into other channels. These men were Mark Hopkins, William S. O'Brien, Michael Reese and David Colton.

The others are arrested for giving Swails notice to leave the place.

We are not scared worth a cent. The Democracy of Williamsburg mean to carry this election. No oddz are asked of Swails. # J. R. & L. P. SMITH

AVE this day formed a copartnership, and will continue to sell GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS,

And also manufacture Clothing at "hard time" prices. J. R. Smith again comes to the front and respectfully asks his old friends to give him a call and examine Goods before purchasing elsewhere. L. P. Smith has just returned from New York, where he purchased a fine stock of all kinds of Gents' Furnishing Goods. We will also be able to show a larger stock of Ready Made Clothing than ever before, and at prices that will astonish everybody. We will not enumerate our stock, but will say that we can sell a man anything he desires to wear, except Shoes. Come to see us at the old stand—McCULLY'S CORNER.

J. R. & L. P. SMITH.

SEWING MACHINES—We also sell a first-class Sewing Machine, and guargreat many "WILSON MACHINES" this year, and have yet to hear a single complaint. While we do not claim it to be the best, we do assert that it is as good as any Machine on the market, and cheaper than any good machine that has been offered to the public. Call and examine for yourself.
